1. Overview

A Task Force chaired by the Hong Kong Monetary Authority and comprises representatives from Private Wealth Management Association, the Hong Kong Institute of Bankers, Hong Kong Securities and Investment Institute (HKSI Institute) and Treasury Markets Association developed the Enhanced Competency Framework (ECF) for private wealth management (PWM) practitioners to ensure individuals engaged in providing services to PWM customers have an enhanced level of competency in the technical and ethics and compliance areas.

Under the ECF, two competency-related modules, Module 1 on Technical, Industry and Product Knowledge and Module 2 on Ethics and Compliance, are developed to set the standard for PWM practitioners. The HKSI Institute is responsible for Module 1 of the Certified Private Wealth Professional (CPWP) including both training programme and examination.

- On the examination date, candidates must bring the hardcopy of their relevant Admission Form for verification purposes.

5. Changes of Personal Particulars

- Candidates must promptly update their personal particulars (e.g. email address, telephone numbers, address, etc.) through the “Profile” section in the Online Portal.
- Failure to make timely notifications of any changes to the HKSI Institute may delay or prevent candidates from receiving information on their enrolled examinations.

6. Examination Day Policies and Procedures

6.1. Examination Regulations

- Candidates MUST read the Examination Regulations of the CPWP Module 1 Examination in Appendix 1 of this handbook carefully before attempting any examination. Candidates suspected of breaching examination regulations during the examination will be suspended from taking any further HKSI Institute’s examinations immediately and will not receive their examination results until the whole process for handling alleged misconduct cases is completed and they are not disqualified from the examination.
- During the suspension period, candidates will not be able to re-scheduled any of their enrolled examinations to another session and all fees paid are non-transferrable and non-refundable.
- All alleged misconduct cases will be investigated by the HKSI Institute and may be reported to the Examination Disciplinary Panel and/or Appeal Panel for decision-making.
- Failure to observe any of the regulations may lead to disqualification from the examination and candidates may be suspended from taking any HKSI Institute examinations for a period ranging from six months to five years. The HKSI Institute will report any instances of candidates breaching these examination regulations to the Hong Kong Monetary Authority (HKMA) and the Private Wealth Management Association (PWMA) and it reserve the rights to report to the police, inform relevant stakeholders, and display information about the misconduct case on its website. All misconduct cases will be recorded in candidates’ personal records maintained by the Institute for future reference.

6.2. Identification Policy

- Candidates must present a valid identification or travel document(s) to take the examination and ensure that their English names on their identification or travel documents match those in the HKSI Institute record (candidates can log in to the Online Portal to confirm their English name). If the English names do not match, candidates will NOT be allowed to take the examination and will receive an ABSENT grade.

6.3. Attendance

- Candidates must report to the assigned examination centre 30 minutes before the examination starts. Upon arrival, invigilators will check their Hong Kong identity card, passport or other formal travel documents and the hard copy of their Admission Form (for the PBE). Unless approved by the invigilator, candidates must sit in their designated seats.

6.4. Absent Grade

- Candidates will receive an ABSENT grade if
  - their English name on the identification document does not match the English name in the HKSI Institute record; or
  - they arrive after the scheduled starting time; or
  - they do not attend the examination.
- Absentees will not be able to re-schedule their missed examination, and all fees paid are non-transferrable and non-refundable.

6.5. Examination System Login [applicable for the Computer-based Examination (CBE)]

- Before the examination begins, candidates assigned to their individual computer workstations must verify their English name displayed on the monitor. To access the examination system, candidates must follow the invigilators' instructions. When the candidate clicks "Start Test Session", the examination process begins.

6.6. Security

- The CBE centre is equipped with a video/audio surveillance system for security purposes. Candidates should be aware that their examination session may be recorded.

7. Examination Results

7.1. Results and Performance Analyses

- All examination results are graded as follows:
PASS or FAIL or ABSENT

For the CBE

- Candidates can view their grade in the examination system immediately after the respective examination session.
- Candidates can download and print the Notification of Results and Performance Analysis from the Online Portal approximately TWO HOURS after each examination. If candidates cannot obtain their Notification of Results from the Online Portal one day after each examination, please contact the Institute at exam@hksi.org.

For the PBE

- The examination results and individual performance analyses will be available in the Online Portal approximately TEN WEEKS after each examination.

- The Notification of Results and Performance Analysis will be available for all candidates to download and print from the Online Portal within ONE YEAR of the examination date.

7.2. Results Rechecking

- Candidates may request for results rechecking service if they believe that a grading error has occurred. The candidate should submit their request in writing to the HKSI Institute within 21 WORKING DAYS from the release of examination results. The request should include the Examination Name, Paper and Date, as well as the candidate's Name and Hong Kong identity card/Passport Number.
- The HKSI Institute charges an administration fee for the rechecking of each examination session (please refer to our website for the Fee Schedule and payment methods).
- All fees paid are non-transferable and non-refundable. However, if the original examination result is found incorrect after remarking, the administration fee will be refunded to the candidate concerned.
- The HKSI Institute will normally notify the candidate within SEVEN WORKING DAYS of receiving the written request. For confidentiality reasons, the results rechecking report will only be sent by post to the candidate.
- The decision of the HKSI Institute regarding the rechecking of results is final and binding.

7.3. Loss or Damage to Notification of Results

- Candidates who have lost or damaged their official Notification of Results or request for the Notification of Results after the display period in the Online Portal may apply for a Statement of Results through the Online Portal under eForm within seven years of the date of the relevant examination.
- The HKSI Institute charges an administration fee for issuing the Statement of Results (please refer to our website for the Fee Schedule and payment methods).
- All fees paid are non-transferable and non-refundable.
- Candidates can download the Statement of Results from the Online Portal (under eForm > Application Record) approximately 30 minutes after receiving email confirmation of their successful application. The download link will be valid for one year from the application date.

8. Examination Preparation

APPENDIX 2

NOTICE RELATING TO THE PERSONAL DATA (PRIVACY) ORDINANCE

The Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance (the “Ordinance”) has been effective in Hong Kong since late 1996. This notice is intended to help candidates understand their obligations and rights regarding the provision of their personal data to the Hong Kong Securities and Investment Institute (HKSI Institute) and how the HKSI Institute may use or handle such data.

1. Candidates must keep the HKSI Institute updated of any changes in their personal data from the time they enrol as candidates for an examination until they completed it.
2. The HKSI Institute will use the personal data provided for the following purposes:
  - a. administering the examination and marketing;
  - b. delivering information about the examination;
  - c. maintaining candidate records;
  - d. distribution of examination results to concerned candidates;
  - e. certifying candidates’ examination-related information to the Hong Kong Monetary Authority (HKMA) and the Private Wealth Management Association (PWMA);
  - f. reporting information of candidates violating the examination regulations to the HKMA and the PWMA, the police, inform relevant stakeholders, and display information about the misconduct case on HKSI institute website;
  - g. transferring, releasing, disclosing or providing to the HKMA and the PWMA for monitoring, verifying and conducting matching (including “matching procedure” as defined in s.2 of the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance, Cap 486) purposes as well as any other related purposes of assisting HKMA and the PWMA to perform and discharge their functions;
  - h. informing candidates of activities, courses, examinations, products or services that the HKSI Institute believes may interest them;
  - i. conducting research or statistical analysis;
  - j. promoting and providing services offered by the HKSI Institute, PWMA or such third parties as determined by the HKSI Institute;
  - k. releasing information to the relevant third parties on whose behalf the HKSI Institute administers, conducts or organises examinations and to any third party that the HKSI Institute engages to administer and/or conduct examinations for and on behalf of the HKSI Institute; and
  - l. any other related purposes.
3. The HKSI Institute will keep candidates’ personal data confidential. Nevertheless, during its operations, the HKSI Institute may compare, transfer or exchange their data with the data already possessed, or obtained hereafter, by the HKSI Institute for these or any other purposes.
4. Candidates may have the right, under the Ordinance, to request access to, or correction of any data provided by them as per the manner and limitations prescribed therein. In this connection, please note that the answer books and answer sheets used by candidates in the examinations (which may contain their personal data) will be destroyed by the HKSI Institute two months after the date of the examinations.
5. As the Ordinance allows, the HKSI Institute has the right to charge a reasonable fee for the processing of any request for data access.

6. Candidates who wish to request access to or correction of their data should do so in writing to the HKSI Institute as below:
Hong Kong Securities and Investment Institute
17/F, Cambridge House, Taikoo Place,
979 King's Road, Quarry Bay, Hong Kong
Curriculum and Examinations Department
Administrative Officer
7. Candidates who do not want to receive any information on activities, courses or examinations organised by the HKSI Institute should write to the HKSI Institute.
