About HKIRA

The Hong Kong Investor Relations Association (HKIRA) is a professional association comprising investor relations (“IR”) practitioners and corporate officers responsible for communications between corporate management and the investment community. Since established in 2008, HKIRA advocates the setting of international standards in IR education, advances the best IR practices and meets the professional development needs of those interested in pursuing the investor relations profession.

To date, HKIRA has nearly 800 members and most of them are working for companies primarily listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. HKIRA's membership profile covers a wide spectrum of professions from IR, finance, accounting, company secretarial to corporate investment roles, including executives and C-level management of listed companies.

During the past 10 years, HKIRA promotes excellence in the investor relations profession in Hong Kong. Since 2014, HKIRA organizes the Investor Relations Awards to honour the excellence in local IR industry, and the IR Symposium in collaboration with HKEX to gather bright minds of IR professionals. HKIRA also provides seminars, professional training, and internationally-recognized certificate and education program to support high professional and ethical standards in the practice of Investor Relations.
