

Keri Neo

Head of Products Singapore Exchange

Keri Neo is Head of Products within the Equities & Fixed Income Group at Singapore Exchange (SGX). In this role, she takes charge of strategy and business development for exchange traded products (ETPs) listed on SGX Securities Market (SGX-ST). She also works closely with products issuers, distributors on various industry initiatives including product development, sales and marketing.

Prior to this role, Keri has had more than 10 years of experience leading the ETF business, as well as in product development and management of equity index futures and options for SGX Derivatives business.

Keri holds Masters of Science (Financial Engineering) from National University of Singapore and Bachelor of Business Management in Finance from Singapore Management University.